

Sinclair Broadcasting should not be allowed to air "Stolen Honor" until after November 2nd. Let them prove that they are not attempting to influence the election through their media ownership by setting an air date outside of the election cycle.